

Lake Winnipeg Basin Program

Symposium March 20 & 21, 2019

Symposium Summary

- Overview of in-lake and landscape-based monitoring and research
- Overview of various activities undertaken under the 3 program pillars
- Various examples of nutrient-reducing actions in the basin
- Transboundary activities within the basin
- Community-based Monitoring
- Collaborative efforts and Indigenous led-activities

Next Steps

- Symposium Summary Report
- State of the Lake Report and Indicator Fact Sheets
- Working with Indigenous peoples to utilize Traditional Knowledge and on broader reconciliation efforts
- Actions undertaken by program partners
- Adaptive Management Approach to managing nutrients within the basin
- Future formal arrangement to support collaboration post Canada-Manitoba MOU which expires in 2020
- Future forums & other opportunities to engage on the ecological health of Lake Winnipeg and its basin